DIRECTOR, FBI (92-6054) 9/3/65

SAC, CHICAGO (92-1173) (P)

LA COSA NOSTRA
AR - CONSPIRACY

Rerep of SA LEONARD H. MC COY, 7/19/65, at New York and Bureau letter to Chicago 8/20/65.

The Chicago Office from the inception of the Criminal Intelligence Program has been most desirous of ascertaining the identity of LCN members in the Chicago "family", and this office in the past and particularly now, has been very cognizant of any person who might be a member of this organization or any person who we could surmise might be a suspected LCN member. In this area of suspected members, Chicago could only be certain of one person, SEBASTIAN JOHN GULOTTA from the Rockford, Illinois, area. He was so listed in the rerep of SA MC COY. There were many persons who were believed to hold a potential of being groomed for LCN membership or there was a possibility in the making of a person being considered for future initiation into the LCN. These persons were appropriately set forth in rerep under "potential member".

The Bureau requirements for designating membership in the LCN are very clear and certainly well founded. There are a number of individuals in the Chicago area who are not suspected LCN members but because of their activity, associates and background hold a potential of being groomed at some time or another for inclusion in the membership of this organization. In almost every instance, Chicago is aware of the activities of these persons as potential members through either current or past investigation or through informants who are in a position to know the individuals mentioned.

Cases are now opened in the 92 classification on the following persons whose potential appears greatest for future consideration for LCN membership:

CASPER CIAPPETTA
BEN FILLICHIO
FRANK FRATTO
DOMINIC GALIANO
LEONARD GIANOLA
SAM CESARIO

The list of persons set forth in referenced Bureau letter has been carefully reviewed and analyzed. From that list the above cases have been opened and active and intensive investigation is being conducted. In connection with others mentioned the following observations are made:

MIKE CALDARULO (deceased)

JASPER BERNARD CALO (LCN member, resides in Italy but is United States citizen. Dead file maintained.)

NICK CIRCELLA (deported to South America but now resides Mexico City, Mexico.)

FRANK LISCANDRELLA (incarcerated U. S. penitentiary.)

JOSEPH LISCANDRELLA (deceased)

GEORGE C. TUFFANELLI (recent review of CG 6343-C* shows not LCN member)

The Chicago Office at the present time has pending cases in other classifications concerning the following:

CG 92-1173

DOMINIC CORTINA (165-462)

[redacted] b7D

JOSEPH GRIECO (166-83)
ANTHONY PITELLO, aka. Tony Orlando (162-647)
JOE SPADAVECCHIO (166-83)
JOHN VARELLI (92-1358) ~~(P* with current FHA investigation being conducted)~~

In connection with other individuals listed as potential members, the Chicago Office is in a position to remain abreast of their activities through sources and corollary investigations. In some instances the person is a known cartage or jewel thief who associates principally with persons in the organized criminal element in Chicago. Their background and national origin is such that at some time in the future such a person could be considered for grooming as an LCN member. There are several persons who are active in the "juice" racket or who are regarded only as "collectors", yet their associates are close to organized crime and the persons background and origin such that they could be considered for grooming in the LCN. In some instances the persons mentioned have been known to this office for many years and previous investigations have indicated that although close to LCN members and probably used by them no information is known that he is a member or suspected member, yet, such a persons would hold potential for constant future evaluation. In almost every instance information is forthcoming concerning these persons, consequently no AR investigation is being initiated at this time, UACB.

The Chicago Office attempts to carefully review any and all information obtained from both 92 matters and gambling investigations. Wherever it is determined that the individual is worthy of additional investigation, such inquiries are made or an appropriate 92 case is opened with emphasis on his LCN connections.

Chicago will conscientiously remain alert to their responsibilities in the area of the Criminal Intelligence Program. Every effort is being extended to insure that no person is overlooked who offers any potential as LCN material through his associates or his activities.

I. GENERAL CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES

92-466-2915

The "Chicago Sun Times", four star final edition, dated 5-15-65, page 12, column 6, contained an article captioned "Find Ex-Convict Is Innocent of Voting Illegally".

The article reflects that charges of illegal voting against CHARLES DI CARO, 53, were dismissed by Judge GEORGE N. LEIGHTON.

DI CARO was arrested 4-30-64, on a charge of violating a statute prohibiting persons from voting who have been convicted of a felony.

The charges were based on a 1936 conviction for robbery and a 1956 conviction for conspiracy to possess goods stolen from an interstate shipment.

LEIGHTON said there was no basis for the illegal voting charge because of a law in Wisconsin, where the robbery conviction occurred, restoring full rights to felons after they have served a jail sentence, and because the conspiracy was a misdemeanor.

DI CARO was one of seven ex-convicts arrested under the seldom-used law. b6 b7C

Chicago report dated 5-17-65 by SA [redacted] entitled "LA COSA NOSTRA, Aka." contains the following.

Set forth was a list of individuals who have been reported by sources of the Chicago Office to be connected in some way with the organized criminal element in Chicago, and/or the Chicago "family". Insufficient information is available at this time to definitely state whether these persons are or are not connected with the LCN. It should be noted that in most instances these people are currently actively engaged in activities which are directly controlled or operated by the Chicago "family".

I. BACKGROUND AND PERSONAL HISTORY

Birth and Citizenship

On February 7, 1966, [redacted] Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), 219 South Dearborn, Chicago, Illinois, furnished INS file A11910485 to SA JOHN D. RIORDAN. It contained the following information: b6 b7C

CHARLES "SPECS" DI CARO, also known as SAVERIO DI CARO, and CHARLES DI CARA, was born in Chicago, Illinois on January 19, 1912, as reflected in birth registry number 3585 in the Bureau of Vital Statistics, Chicago. This birth registration was under the name SAVERIO DE CARO. The birth occurred at 649 West 24th Place, Chicago, and CHARLES was the fourth living child of PAOLO, 32, Caltaninetta, Italy, laborer, and CAROLINE SPICUZZA, 30, Termini, Italy. The birth was reported by one Doctor V. INDORENA, 2320 Wentworth, on January 29, 1912.

The same file contains the information that CHARLES DI CARO was interviewed on November 14, 1963 by an INS representative. He said he had been born in Chicago, January 19, 1912, and was baptized in the Santa Maria Incoronata Church, February 16, 1912 under the name SAVERIO. He said he had attended the Mark Sheridan School. He produced a copy of the baptismal record of the above church showing the aforementioned names and dates.

On November 19, 1963, [redacted] b6 b7C of the Chancery Office, Archdiocese of Chicago, said the records of the above named church contain a record of the baptismal of CHARLES DI CARO as set out above.

Marital Status

According to the commitment papers in 1956, for the subject's incarceration at Terre Haute, Indiana Federal Penitentiary, he claimed that his wife was Mrs. MARTHA DI CARO nee RIZZO of 706 West 26th Street, Chicago, Illinois. However, information available in the Chicago Office files reflects that in September, 1950 the subject was separated from his wife MARTHA.

Children

Files of the Chicago Police Department, Intelligence Division, which were checked on January 12, 1966, by SA JOHN D. RIORDAN reveal the subject has a son named PAUL, a daughter CAROLINE [redacted] In 1965, [redacted] ages 31, 33, [redacted] DI CARO b6 b7C

Other Relatives

Father

According to the INS file mentioned previously, PAUL DI CARO, 604 West 25th Place, on January 18, 1938, filed a Declaration of Intention number 133817 in United States District Court. He stated he was born in Palermo, Italy on January 3, 1880 and was married March 3, 1901 at Termini, Sicily to CAROLINA SPICUZZA who was born at Termini, Italy October 11, 1881, and she entered the United States on July 2, 1902 on the S.S. All of these were born in Chicago and resided in Chicago.

PAUL was naturalized in United States District Court in Chicago March 15, 1944, and his certificate of naturalization is numbered C5 978 812.

Mother

CAROLINA DI CARO nee SPICUZZA at the time of her alien registration in 1940 stated she resided at 604 West 25th Place, Chicago. She listed as relatives the following:

PAUL, her husband of the same address as above

EMMANUEL , AUGUST and CHARLES, sons, all at the same address as above

SAM, son, residing at 2540 South Emerald

THOMAS, son, 528 West 25th Place, Chicago

Mrs. DI CARO also listed a brother JOSEPH SPICUZZA, 5043 South Western, Chicago, and a sister, Mrs. JOSEPHINE MASSARO, 604 West 25th Place, Chicago.

The above file at INS also reflects investigation which indicated the arrival of CAROLINE BALDI at New York, July 5, 1902 aboard the S. S. "Tartar Prince." She was accompanied by FRANCESCO PAOLO DI CARO. The investigator noted there was a difference in the last name of the mother of CHARLES and JOSEPH DI CARO (who were the subjects of the INS investigation). It also stated, however, that it was believed the record reflects this information pertains to the mother of the two individuals.

Brothers

JOSEPH DI CARO, the brother of CHARLES, was interviewed on November 14, 1963, by an INS representative, and he named the members of his family as has been previously explained.

No record of the birth of JOSEPH was found at the Bureau of Vital Statistics, Chicago, by the INS investigator. According to [redacted] previously mentioned, a baptismal record for JOSEPH DI CARO was located reflecting his birth in Chicago, and his baptism in the Santa Maria Incoronata church at Chicago. b6 b7C

In July, 1950, a Federal Grand Jury charged [redacted] and JOSEPH "SPIDER" DI CARO with violation of Section 659, Title 18, United States Code in that they were in felonious possession of goods stolen from a motor truck of the Spector Motor Service, Chicago, Illinois on June 13, 1950, and these goods were in interstate transport. [redacted] b6 b7C

On April 12, 1951, JOSEPH DI CARO was sentenced to one year and one day on one count of the indictment after he had been found guilty. On another count he was found guilty and sentence was suspended with DI CARO to be on probation three years after the expiration of his prison term.

On June 15, 1951, JOSEPH DI CARO was delivered to the warden of the United States Penitentiary, Terre Haute, Indiana, to serve his sentence.

On August 25, 1964, JOSEPH DI CARO, [redacted] were indicted by a Federal Grand Jury for the illegal possession and sale of narcotics and for conspiracy in connection with this. They were arrested August 26, 1964. On October 20, 1964, DI CARO, CORDOVANO and GARAFOLO pleaded not guilty. b6 b7C

After a series of legal maneuvers trial of the defendants was set by Judge JAMES PARSONS for January 24, 1966. On that date Judge PARSONS upon his motion reset the trial date to February 16, 1966.

The above information is found in Cause 64 CR 492 of the records of the clerk of the United States District Court, Chicago, Illinois, and was examined by SA JOHN D. RIORDAN on February 2, 1966.

The "Chicago Daily News" of August 26, 1964 contains an article about the arrest of DI CARO and the other defendants in the above case and gave his address as of that date as 2569 South Emerald. His occupation was that of truck driver.

AUGUST DI CARO, brother of CHARLES, according to Cause 62 CR 675 in the files of the clerk of the United States District Court, Chicago, Illinois, examined on January 30, 1966, by SA RIORDAN, was indicted with [redacted] for the illegal possession of narcotics by the Federal Grand Jury in December, 1962. DI CARO and [redacted] pleaded guilty and were sentenced to ten years and [redacted] years respectively to the custody of the Attorney General of the United States on March 22, 1963. On April 11, 1963 they were delivered to the warden of the United States Penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas to serve their sentences. b6 b7C

Subsequently both wrote petitions directed to United States District Judge HUBERT WILL, Northern District of Illinois, asking that their sentences by lowered. In granting the petitions Judge WILL lowered the sentence of AUGUST DI CARO to seven years [redacted] Subsequently DI CARO was transferred to the penitentiary at Sandstone, Minnesota. b6 b7C

Education

INS file number A11910485 mentioned above contains a report of [redacted] of February 17, 1964, containing information that the records of the Chicago School District were reviewed on December 2, 1963, and they showed CHARLES DI CARO had attended Mark Sheridan School through the seventh grade and had left school in March, 1926 to go to work. Places of residence were listed as 635 West 25th Street, 722 West 25th Street, and 604 West 25th Place. b6 b7C

Residences

According to the files of the Chicago Police Department, Intelligence Division, which were checked on January 11, 1966 by SA RIORDAN, CHARLES DI CARO was residing at 706 West 26th Street, Chicago. These records indicate residence at that address from 1951. They reflect that prior thereto his address was 604 West 25th Place, Chicago. In 1936, his residence was shown as 733 West 26th Street, Chicago, in care of his mother-in-law, Mrs. FRIEDA RIZZO.

Prior residences were shown as 635 West 25th Street and 722 West 25th Street, Chicago, as was explained under "Education."

Occupation

In March, 1950 SAs of the FBI during physical surveillances of CHARLES DI CARO learned he was allegedly employed by RALPH PIERCE, Manager, Charlie Russell's Silver Bar, State and Van Buren, Chicago.

During official investigations of cases involving thefts from interstate shipment in which DI CARO was a suspect, it was learned that he was usually described as being occupied solely as a gambler. The files of the Chicago Police Department, Intelligence Division, examined on January 11, 1966, by SA RIORDAN reflect that DI CARO was a chauffeur for RALPH PIERCE, a Chicago area hoodlum.

The "Chicago Daily News" of February 18, 1964 contains an article under the title "Of All Hood's Specialists, Hit Man Has Key Role." This article mentions the special skills for the "Big Business of Crime" in Chicago including "hit men, wheel men and front men." An example of a hit man was FELIX ALDERISIO (top hoodlum in the Chicago area). Examples of wheel men were ROCCO SALVATORE and CHARLES DI CARO. IRWIN WEINER was the example used for a front man. The article contains that wheel men were usually on salary to some hoodlum big shot and CHARLES DI CARO, "one time cartage thief", was driver for RALPH PIERCE.

Military Record

According to INS file A 11910485 mentioned previously, the records of the Illinois Selective Service System were checked in Springfield and revealed CHARLES DI CARO had serial number 01884 and order number 911 under the registration on October 14, 1940. At that time DI CARO stated he was born Janurry 19, 1912, Chicago and resided at 604 West 25th Place, Chicago, Illinois. He listed his employment as Kenny Cartage Company, 2642 Calumet Avenue, Chicago.

According to the commitment papers of DI CARO in 1956 when he was incarcerated at the United States Penitentiary, Terre Haute, Indiana, he claimed he had no military service.

Drivers License Information

The files of the Chicago Police Department, Intelligence Division, mentioned previously, reflect that DI CARO has driver's license number D 260-1421-2019. This license is valid in Illinois.

III. CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES

On January 24, 1936, the Peoria Cartage Company reported the hijacking of a truck containing 25 cases of liquor. CHARLES DI CARO was identified as a subject but he was not apprehended. The United States Attorney at Chicago authorized prosecution. A complaint was filed and warrants were issued on January 30, 1936. Subsequently, the United States Attorney advised the complaint as to DI CARO had been dismissed.

CHARLES DI CARO was apprehended by the Chicago Police Department on September 25, 1936 and he admitted knowledge of the theft and helping two other subjects unload the liquor in a garage. He was booked in State Court on a fugitive warrant from Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

DI CARO was returned to Milwaukee and was sentenced in State Court to serve one to four years at the Milwaukee House of Correction in connection with a robbery in Wisconsin.

In October, 1941, CHARLES BENJAMIN DI CARO, also known as "SPECK" and BENJAMIN BERNARD were identified as being responsible for the theft of nine cases of cigars from an interstate shipment. Subsequently, DI CARO was apprehended and the hearing was held October 14, 1941 before the United States Commissioner when he was held for the action of the United States District Court. The facts in the case were referred to Federal Grand Jury and on October 31, 1941 a "no bill" was returned.

1943

[redacted] T-1 in November, 1943, provided the information that there was operating in Chicago an individual known to him as "GREASE BALL" also called LOUIE, whose name was not known to him. He was described as an old-time thief, Italian, about 5' 7" , 135 to 140 pounds, dark complexion, [redacted]

[redacted] b7D

Detective [redacted] of District 23, Chicago Police Department, advised Special Agents HOUSTON H. SLATE and WILLIAM MATIAS that "GREASE BALL's" true name was DECARO and he was also known as "SPECS." b6 b7C

1944

On March 9, 1944, Police Officers [redacted] and [redacted] of the Maxwell Street Police Station, Chicago Police Department, advised SA WILLIAM J. MATIAS that they had picked up [redacted] for questioning in a breaking of and theft from an interstate shipment at the QIM Transportation Company on January 2, 1944. As a result of interviews with JOHN ARKE, a subject in the case, they learned that ARKE suspected [redacted] of the theft of cigars from 2511 South [redacted] which ARKE had stored in a garage there. D[redacted]s with ARKE, it was determined that [redacted]ARO and [redacted] went to a tavern on 18th [redacted] where they contacted one JACK HANNIGAN and [redacted]ting. During the melee in the tavern a shot was fired presumably at HANNIGAN by either ARKE or DI CARO. b6 b7C

Subsequently, JOHN HANNIGAN was found dead in his automobile on November 16, 1960 with a bullet in his body and there was speculation by the Chicago Police Department as to the exact cause of his being murdered. Speculation included that he may have been an informer or that he may have failed to pay his outstanding debts.

A complaint was filed February 7, 1944 against DI CARO and he later appeared voluntarily before the United States Commissioner, Chicago, Illinois, on February 16, 1944 with his attorney and pleaded not guilty. The case was presented to the Federal Grand Jury, Chicago, Illinois, on February 25, 1944. The complaint was dismissed against DI CARO on March 3, 1944 because of insufficient evidence.

On April 8, 1946, 500 cases of Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer were stolen, at Lincolnwood, Illinois. Investigation in connection with this case by SA J. HERBERT FOLEY disclosed that MICHAEL CONDIC, [redacted] frequented the Point Inn Tavern at Halsted and Archer. This place was also frequented by "SPECS" DI CARO, a well-known hijacker and cartage thief. The tavern was operated by [redacted] b6 b7C

SA [redacted] interviewed [redacted] regarding the activities of [redacted] and DI CARO. He admitted knowing both men but denied knowing anything of their present activities. At the time DI CARO resided at 604 West 25th Street.

On June 4, 1948, four cases of Society Brand clothing were taken from a Standard Cartage Company truck in Chicago by four unknown subjects. A black 1942 Ford Sedan was believed to have been used in the theft and the Ford was owned by JOHN ARKE, known cartage thief who claimed the car was stolen from him by an unknown person on the afternoon of June 4, 1948. Witnesses identified CHARLES DI CARO as one of the subjects. DI CARO, a known cartage thief and associate of ARKE, denied any knowledge of the theft. The United States Attorney dedined prosecution as to DI CARO since there were insufficient facts to sustain successful prosecution.

[redacted] T-7 advised on May 14, 1953 that he had learned that whenever "SPIDER" DI CARO and "SPECS" DI CARO, both fences, met with anyone regarding a purchase or a sale of merchandise, they would rent a room in the Vernon Hotel, b7D

Jackson and Halsted, for the meeting. This usually occurred on Friday nights; they also gathered there to play cards.

On June 15, 1953, Chief of Detectives O'MALLEY, Chicago Police Department advised SA LENARD A. WOLF that the following had been arrested, questioned and put on the lie detector in connection with the kidnapping and murder of CLEM GRAVER, Republican State Representative from the 15th District, and 21st Ward Committeeman:

[redacted] b6 b7C
CHARLES "SPECS" DI CARO;
[redacted]

He stated the lie detector indicated that CHARLES DI CARO was lying when he denied knowing GRAVER. It was noted that around February, 1953, DI CARO and GRAVER were together at the Chicago Psychopathic Hospital, at which time GRAVER used his influence in securing the release of [redacted] b6 b7C a local hoodlum and associate of DI CARO and BENNY BERNARD.

[redacted] T-4, on June 29, and July 1, 1953, furnished information about CHARLES "SPECS" DI CARO and BENNY BERNARD. On November 23, 1953, Lieutenant [redacted] b6 b7C Cartage Detail, Chicago Police Department, complained that a truck of Chick's Motor Service was stolen and recovered shortly thereafter being driven by ANTHONY STAZZONE with CHARLES DI CARO in a green Ford pick-up truck directly behind. Both were arrested but refused to furnish information regarding this theft and they were incarcerated at the city jail. They were delivered to federal custody on November 27, 1953, on which date an authorized complaint was filed charging the subject with violation of Section 659, Title 18, United States Code.

On June 29, 1954, the United States Commissioner dismissed complaints outstanding against the subject.

On December 1, 1954, the facts of the case were presented to the Federal Grand Jury and a true bill was voted.

In September, 1955, the United States Attorney was awaiting return of the November, 1954, Grand Jury so that indictments might be presented to them for signature against the subject.

On November 25, 1953, CHARLES "SPECS" DI CARO was arrested in Chicago, Illinois, in the process of stealing from an interstate shipment cargo valued at $8,000 by Officers [redacted] and [redacted] Cartage Detail, Chicago b6 Police Department. Lieutenant [redacted] in charge b7C of the Cartage Detail, stated he doubted that any other officer attached to this unit would have arrested DI CARO and brought him into the station and he was of the opinion any other officer would probably accept money from DI CARO and give him a "pass" on that particular case.

[redacted] T-9, in November, 1954, stated that he knew CHARLES "SPECKS" DI CARO as a cartage thief and fence for stolen merchandise who was then using the place for storing stolen items in the vicinity of 51st and South Racine, Chicago, Illinois. b7D

[redacted] T-9 advised on December 23, 1954, that "SPECS" DI CARO was offering for sale some Rogers 1847 Silverware in sets and a number of individual forks. "SPECS" also had a quantity of Cotton Shoppe dresses. b7D

On October 29, 1965, Docket Number 55CR540 in the files of the Clerk's Office, United States District Court, 219 South Dearborn, Chicago, Illinois, was examined by SA JOHN D. RIORDAN. This Docket covered the case of United States versus CHARLES BENJAMIN DI CARO and ANTHONY STAZZONE. The information was included that the November, 1954, Grand Jury found that in November, 1953, the defendants had conspired to commit the offense of unlawfully possessing goods and chattels stolen from interstate shipments of freight in violation of Section 659, Title 18, United States Code. The indictment in the count of conspiracy included as overt acts the following:

November 25, 1953 - STAZZONE was in possession of and driving a stolen truck belonging to Chick's Motor Service

November 25, 1953 - DI CARO was in a green one-half ton Ford pick-up truck following the stolen Chick's Motor Service truck into an alley between Jackson and Van Buren Streets. This truck contained a Cadillac engine without a public motor number, and a radio capable of receiving police calls.

On March 6, 1956, [redacted] Attorney, appeared for the defendants and asked the court to withdraw a plea of not guilty in the above case and to enter a plea of guilty for both, Judge JOHN P. BARNES on the plea of guilty committed the defendants to the custody of the Attorney General for a period of two years. b6 b7C

On March 9, 1956, DI CARO and STAZZONE were delivered to the Warden, United States Penitentiary, Terre Haute, Indiana. DI CARRO was released from prison on September 12, 1957, at Leavenworth, Kansas.

[redacted] T-9 on October 30, 1954, advised that CHARLES "SPECS" DI CARO and TONY STAZZONE [redacted]

1955

On April 28, 1955, the Federal Transfer Company, Chicago, Illinois, was burglarized and a quantity of merchandise was stolen. Subsequently, in June, 1955, [redacted] b7D T-10 furnished information that CHARLES "SPECS" DI CARO had sold similar merchandise and in a similar quantity within the past few months. In July and August, 1955, the source was unable to develop any further information.

1962

The files of the Chicago Police Department, Intelligence Division, mentioned previously, contained a reference to a memorandum dated September 11, 1962, which noted that "SPECS" DI CARO and ROCCO POTENZA were active in a big card game and dice game in the far north suburbs. It was not known if they were in the same game or at different locations.

As recently as September, 1965, POTENZA was observed in the company of such well-known members of the Chicago criminal element as ANTHONY ACCARDO, PAUL DI LUCIA, ROSS PRIO, JOSEPH DI VARCO, JOSEPH ARNOLD, DOMINIC NUCCIO, and DOMINIC BRANCATO.

The Chicago Police Department, Intelligence Division, files, mentioned previously, contain a report of November 12, 1962, relating to a survey of alleged gambling activities in the area bounded by 31st Street, 22nd Street, Wentworth Avenue, and Canal Street, all Chicago. DI CARO was observed entering the back room of Nick's Restaurant. The report states the subject is a known gambler and burglar.

It is noted that Nick's Restaurant is located at 2604 South Wentworth, Chicago.

The "Chicago Sun-Times" of September 23, 1963, contained an article with the by-line SANDY SMITH titled "Chicago Mob Lists Handed to Senators". The article mentions the Chicago Police Department had tabbed 140 gangsters as suspected members of the murderous Cosa Nostra brotherhood. It stated that the Intelligence Division report of the Chicago Police Department separates the Chicago gang "family" from the rest of the city's crime syndicate. 140 mobsters were named in the "family" and 45 others were listed in the "crime syndicate" but outside the ruling "family". Among those named in the west side, north side, south side, and suburban areas of the syndicate's "family" appears the name CHARLES DI CARO in the south side group.

The "Chicago Daily News" of October 11, 1963, referred to the testimony of Captain [redacted] of the Chicago Police Department, Intelligence Division, on that date before the McClellan Committee in Washington, D.C. at which time he listed 96 members of the Chicago "Italian" organization including 19 overall bosses. Among south side hoodlums named were CHARLES "SPECS" DI CARO and JOSEPH "SPIDER" DI CARO. b6 b7C

The Daily Bulletin Supplement of the Chicago Police Department in March, 1964, listed CHARLES DI CARO as a burglar.

[redacted] T-11 on March 27, 1964 provided information that [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

On April 30, 1964, DI CARO was included among a group of individuals arrested on the complaint of [redacted] of the Illinois Crime Commission. The complaint was that these individuals had been convicted of felonies in the past and had been confined in prison and subsequent to their release they had not been restored to their rights of citizenship. DI CARO was charged with voting at a primary election held under the laws of Illinois on February 26, 1963. He had been convicted of grand larceny in Wisconsin in October, 1936, and he had been convicted of goods stolen in interstate shipment in the Federal District Court, Northern District of Illinois, on March 6, 1956, and since he had not been restored to his rights of citizenship he was in violation of the election code of the State of Illinois. b6 b7C

On July 27, 1964, the "Chicago Daily news" carried an article titled "Judge Won't Dismiss DI CARO's Indictment". It reflected that Judge CHARLES BARRETT had refused to dismiss an indictment of illegal voting against hoodlum CHARLES DI CARO. DI CARO's attorney [redacted] argued that the law under which DI CARO was indicted was repealed in August, 1963. He also said that DI CARO's civil rights were restored in Wisconsin after he served a sentence for grand theft. b6 b7C

The "Chicago Sun Times" of May 15, 1965, contained an article titled "Find Ex-Convict Is Innocent Of Voting Illegally". The article reflected that the charge of illegal voting against CHARLES DI CARO was dismissed by Judge GEORGE N. LEIGHTON.

The Chicago Police Department, Intelligence Division, files, contain a report of October 12, 1965, noting that RONALD JARRETT, an active burglar, was closely associated with "SKID" CARUSO and DI CARO.

Information has been received from the Chicago Police Department, Intelligence Division, that the subject had driver's license D 260-1421-2019, but this did not reflect whether this was a valid one. It is requested that the records of the Auto Title Division and Auto License Division of the Illinois Secretary of State be examined to ascertain if this is a valid license and what auto licenses have been issued to him. DI CARO resides at 706 West 26th Street, Chicago, Illinois, which is also listed as the residence of DI CARO's son, PAUL DI CARO. Therefore, it would be desirable to check the records under PAUL DI CARO also.

For information of the Springfield office, "SPECS" DI CARO has been called by the "Chicago Sun-Times" the chauffer for RALPH PIERCE, a top hoodlum in the Chicago area.

The case is being closed also due to the fact that DI CARO could not be identified with the LCN by [redacted] b7D and no activity currently other than his association with top hoodlum RALPH PIERCE has been established.

DI CARO in conversation with SA JOHN J. OITZINGER on March 29, 1966, stated he had never been "made like the outfit guys". (This is presumably a reference to the LCN).

DI CARO also said that his son was trying to get a job as a police officer with the City of Chicago. He did not want to contact a close personal friend of Mayor RICHARD DALEY because he did not want to be obligated to anyone.

Information re driver's license and auto licenses which may have been issued to DI CARO will be reported in the "PC" file. This information has been requested of the Springfield Division.

Memorandum

TO : SAC, CHICAGO (92-2021) DATE: OCT 20 1969

FROM : SA JOHN E. DALLMAN

SUBJECT: CHARLES DI CARO OR

The attached Federal Income Tax data was made available on the date indicated by Assistant United States Attorney SHELDON DAVIDSON, Special Prosecutions Unit, Chicago. The tax returns from which the data was obtained are in a group of approximately 200 returns requested by the Task Force located in the United States Attorney's Office, Chicago. The returns were obtained by the Task Force from a list of names of hoodlum subjects obtained from the Washington, D. C. headquarters of the Task Force. 1967 returns are the latest available at this time.

The ostensible purpose of the review was to determine which subjects are claiming home mortgage-interest expense deductions.

The review was made as part of a project to determine which hoodlums have obtained loans from Federal Savings and Loan Associations. Title 18, United States Code, Section 1014 covers Federal Savings and Loan Associations and prohibits making of false statements to such institutions for the purpose of influencing any action. Penalty is $5,000 fine or two years or both.

Since the purpose of the review was to merely identify subject's with home mortgages and if possible the S&L holding the mortgage, and the fact the IRS regulations prohibit disclosure of tax information,

THE ATTACHED DATA MUST NOT BE INCLUDED IN DETAILS OF ANY REPORTS SUBMITTED TO THE USA AND SHOULD ONLY BE SET FORTH UNDER ADMINISTRATIVE DATA.

Re Chicago report of SA AUGUST C. KEMPFF dated 9/26/69.

Periodic spot checks were conducted at 706 West 26th Street, Chicago, the address of the subject.

On 9/16/69, a 1969 Buick Electra 4-door, was observed at this address driven by a person who resembled the subject. The 1969 Illinois Registration of this vehicle was 742-518. This license is registered to PAUL J. DI CARO, 706 West 26th Street, Chicago.

It is noted that the subject has a son by the name of PAUL DI CARO; however, the person driving this car was too old to be the subject's son and was very likely the subject. The view obtained of this person was very brief and not sufficient to positively identify this person as the subject.

On 11/24/69, [redacted] advised that subject was observed at 12:32 p.m. at the Pittsfield Building, Chicago, in conference with RALPH PIERCE. b7D

Information from the 1967 Income Tax Report of the subject was furnished by SA [redacted] b6 b7C

Periodic spot checks at 706 West 26th Street, Chicago, the address of the subject, were made throughout the period of this report.

On September 16, 1969, a 1969 Buick Electra, four-door, was observed at the address listed above, driven by a person who resembled the subject. The 1969 Illinois registration of this vehicle was 742-518. This licence is registered to PAUL J. DI CARO, 706 West 26th Street, Chicago.
